

PLEASE NOTE Political Party System not consistent with the Constitution;

The Governor General subject to section 126; can not appoint a prime minister but can appoint a deputy Governor General.

Prime Minister appoints the Governor General that can only be a Titular Office, that is; "having the Title without the duties of an office".

Then why does the Prime Minister and Opposition Leader replace the Governor General in the Parliament? Not consistent with and no mention of such in Sections 1, 2 and 126. Commission of all State Premiers is not consistent with Section 126.
